

MAPPING SEXUAL HARASSMENT IN EGYPT

More than 95 per cent of women in Egypt have experienced sexual harassment at least once, but many citizens there turn a blind eye when it happens. The HarassMap project is aiming to change that attitude at home and abroad, empowering women and changing the attitudes of men in the process.

READING AS THINKING

Answer the following in complete sentences.

- Using the mind map below, provide a concise summary of the article. Use your own words and/or pictures. The main idea goes in the centre of your map with supporting details in the outer boxes.

MAPPING SEXUAL HARASSMENT IN EGYPT

More than 95 per cent of women in Egypt have experienced sexual harassment at least once, but many citizens there turn a blind eye when it happens. The HarassMap project is aiming to change that attitude at home and abroad, empowering women and changing the attitudes of men in the process.

2. Observe the picture in the article and read its caption.

a) What kind of information is presented?

---

---

---

b) What can we learn from the picture and caption?

---

---

---

c) How does this picture help us better understand the topic?

---

---

---

3. Determine some differences and similarities between your life and the one described in Cairo.

---

---

---

---

---

4. Why do you think that sexual harassment has been tolerated in Egypt?

---

---

---

---

---

MAPPING SEXUAL HARASSMENT IN EGYPT

More than 95 per cent of women in Egypt have experienced sexual harassment at least once, but many citizens there turn a blind eye when it happens. The HarassMap project is aiming to change that attitude at home and abroad, empowering women and changing the attitudes of men in the process.

5. Almost half of the community outreach program volunteers are men. Describe how the program has changed the men's perception. What might be some reasons for this transformation?

---

---

---

---

---

6. Explain how HarassMap is working to address sexual harassment.

---

---

---

---

---

7. Predict the outcomes of the project five years from now. Justify your prediction with evidence from the article.

---

---

---

---

---

Think-Pair-Share

8. Think
Watch the clip Five years with HarassMap and write a blog post based on what you learn from the video.
9. Pair
Share your blog post with a partner and decide which ideas are the most essential. Film your own public service announcement to denounce sexual harassment. Include resources in your announcement.
10. Share
As a class, view the different announcements and discuss their importance.

MAPPING SEXUAL HARASSMENT IN EGYPT

More than 95 per cent of women in Egypt have experienced sexual harassment at least once, but many citizens there turn a blind eye when it happens. The HarassMap project is aiming to change that attitude at home and abroad, empowering women and changing the attitudes of men in the process.

ONLINE

1. Using Google Maps, locate Cairo, Egypt, and explore the city by using Street View and the satellite and map modes. Using the quick facts section and other research tools find the following:
  - a. The population
  - b. The neighbouring cities
  - c. The major bodies of water
  - d. Places of cultural significance
  - e. Describe where Cairo is in relation to Canada
2. Consult the HarassMap map. Locate sexual harassment trends in Cairo.
3. Read this article from Kids Help Phone to learn about how to recognize sexual harassment and things you can do to stop it.
4. Read more about sexual harassment and bullying.
5. Learn about crowdsourcing data and its effectiveness from this report on HarassMap.
6. Read this 2014 article about HarassMap to familiarize yourself with some of the organization's obstacles.
7. Explore the different initiatives that HarassMap supports around the world. How do they differ from HarassMap?

MAPPING SEXUAL HARASSMENT IN EGYPT

More than 95 per cent of women in Egypt have experienced sexual harassment at least once, but many citizens there turn a blind eye when it happens. The HarassMap project is aiming to change that attitude at home and abroad, empowering women and changing the attitudes of men in the process.

CROSSWORD:

Across

4. Onlookers
5. HarassMap has taken on this kind of role for other organizations
6. A technology company that developed training for their drivers to stand up against sexual harassment
8. To chronicle
11. To feel like you have authority
12. Growth, development and change
13. Cairo University implemented a policy in 2014 to address this topic

Down

1. A benchmark
2. Preparation
3. To make the process easier
7. Those who answered an inquiry
9. The capital of Egypt
10. Without consequences or punishment